

GREENHEAD COLLEGE GENERAL STUDIES

All students will be required to follow a course of study which will lead to AS and A-level General Studies over their two years at Greenhead College.

You do not need any specific prior knowledge in order to study this subject.

Several areas covered in the course build on your GCSE and AS and A-level work, but others are new.

The main themes of the course are:

- Culture, Arts and Humanities.
- Science, Mathematics and Technology.
- Society, Politics and Economy.

The aims of the course are to develop your:

- Awareness of human knowledge, understanding and behaviour.
- Communication and interpretation skills.

Learning is supported by the General Studies intranet site and lessons in the A2 year (second year).

General Studies is a popular qualification for a wide range of courses in higher education and employment.

It is often a vital qualification for University entrance and many employers - even after you have graduated - can be influenced by your success in General Studies.
