The culture of the College is one of honesty and is opposed to fraud, bribery and corruption. It identifies a clear path for everyone that is associated with the College to report any suspicions of fraud and corruption without any fear of discrimination

2. DEFINITIONS OF THEFT, FRAUD, BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION:

Fraud

The Fraud Act 2006 came into force on 15th January 2007. It repeals the deception offences enshrined in the 1968 and 1978 Theft Acts and replaces them with a single offence of fraud which can be committed in three separate ways:

- False representation
- Failure to disclose information where there is a legal duty to do so
- Abuse of position

The Act also created four new offences of:

- Possession of articles for use in fraud
- Making or supplying articles for use in fraud
- Obtaining services dishonestly
- Participating in fraudulent business

Whilst the act does not provide a single definition of fraud, it may be described as,

The intentional distortion of financial statements or other records by persons internal or external to the authority, which is carried out to conceal the misappropriation of assets or otherwise for gain”.

Fraud can also be defined as “the intentional distortion of financial statements or other records by persons internal or external to the authority, which is carried out to mislead or misrepresent and dishonest conduct with the intention to make gain, or cause a loss or the risk of a loss to another”.

Theft

Theft is defined in the 1968 Theft Act:

“A person shall be guilty of theft if he dishonestly appropriates property belonging to another with the intention of permanently depriving the other of it”.

Bribery

The Bribery Act 2010 came into force on 1st July 2011 and provides a more effective legal framework to combat bribery in the public and private sectors.

The Act:

Creates two general offences covering the offering, promising or giving of an advantage, and requesting, agreeing to receive or accepting of an advantage. It also covers, amongst other things, the offences of bribing another person, of allowing to be bribed and organisational responsibility. Such offences include:

The offer, promise or giving of financial or other advantage to another person in return for the person improperly performing a relevant function or activity requesting, agreeing to receive or accepting a financial or other advantage intending that, in consequence a relevant function or activity should be performed improperly.

Commercial organisation responsibility for a person, associated with the organisation, bribing another person for the purpose of obtaining or retaining business for the organisation.

Corruption

The College defines the term "corruption" as:

The offering, giving, soliciting or accepting of any inducement or reward which would influence the actions taken by the body, its members or officers.

Any concerns should be reported immediately to the Senior Leadership Team (SLT) in the knowledge that such concerns will be treated in confidence and properly investigated.

A Whistleblowing Policy is in place to facilitate the reporting of concerns by employees and Governors where the normal reporting to a line manager is not appropriate.

A copy of the Whistleblowing Policy can be found on the College website.

NB/ Staff and Governors should not attempt to investigate any fraud themselves

The Chair of Governors and/or the Principal will liaise with the DSOD or other member(s) of the SLT in order to investigate an allegation of fraud or corruption.

Where offences are suspected, investigations will be carried out to establish the facts in a fair and objective manner.

The investigation process will include the:

- Screening of the allegations or information to gauge their credibility;
- Securing of all evidence which must be retained in its original format i.e. not written on or marked in anyway and stored securely;

Where evidence of fraud or irregularities is found, the College will consider taking further action. This may include:

- Implementing the College disciplinary procedures where an employee is involved;
